

15. INSTRUCTION FOR THE VALUATION OF ANSWER SCRIPTS OF THE BLIND CANDIDATES

Blind candidates are allowed the service of a scribe to write the examination and they are exempted from drawing diagrams, graphs etc. provided exemption order specifically issued to that effect by the Secretary. The answer scripts of such candidates should be superscripted 'Blind Candidate' along the details of the relevant order number and attest the same by the Chief Superintendent. These answer scripts are to be valued and marks awarded excluding the questions on drawings diagrams, graph etc. Marks for such questions shall be awarded in proportion to the marks secured for the remaining questions. For example, in a paper carrying 100 marks, if a blind candidate has got 40 marks for questions carrying 80 marks, and if there are questions on diagram, drawings and graph etc, for 20 marks, the candidate will be deemed to have secured 10 marks for diagram, graphs, etc. Thus he will be awarded 50 marks for the subject/paper. This bonus mark should be added to the total marks secured, noting a plus (+) sign to the total, both in the script and in the Mark Sheet. The answer scripts of Blind candidates will be indicated as such in bold letters on the top of the answer scripts as stated above from the Examination centre. Scripts with such noting only are eligible for getting grace marks.
